

WIFI

If you have an eduroam account, you can use the university's eduroam WIFI. If you do not have an eduroam account, you can log into the 'webauth' network using a guest account. To get the details of the guest account, please contact one of the conference organisers. Please note that webauth is unencrypted.